All membership applications must be approved by the Walla Walla Yacht Club Board of Directors, which meets monthly. After your application is received, you will be invited to attend a board meeting for introduction. You will be on a waiting list which is kept on a first-come basis, and notified when there is a slip available for a boat your size. For further information, please contact the Commodore or Secretary.

Membership Liability Insurance: Proof of liability insurance shall be required from each membership for each boathouse, boat, jet ski, and/or other motorized watercraft owned and operated at Walla Walla Yacht Club. Proof in the form of a copy of the declarations page received from the insurer shall be submitted with the annual payment of dues. A liability limit for each accident, bodily injury and property damage not less than $300,000 coverage shall be required. Proof of liability is required upon acceptance of your membership to be included with your fee payment.

WWYC assumes no liability for personal property (boathouses, boats, other watercraft), and personal belongings. Members and guests use club facilities at their own risk.
