ARTICLE I

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. ELIGIBILITY. Membership shall be limited to those individuals who enjoy boating and who have the best interest of the club in mind. A membership may be held by a single person or jointly by a husband and wife. Membership privileges, with respect to use of club facilities only, shall be extended to dependent children through age 22, except that dependents younger than 18 years of age shall be under the supervision of an adult member. The exception to this would be a 16 year old with a valid driver's license and a valid Washington or Oregon boater's safety card. (amended 06-19-05)

Section 2. MEMBERSHIP CLASSES. The membership shall consist of the following classes:

a. Regular Membership. A regular member shall be a stockholder and entitled to all the privileges and obligations of membership as defined by these bylaws, including but not limited to membership card, moorage in accordance with Article VII, and use of club facilities. Regular membership is entitled to one (1) vote per membership.

b. Associate Membership. An associate member is entitled to moorage in accordance with Article VII, shall receive a membership card and shall remain on the club mailing list. Associate members will not be responsible for the annual repair and maintenance fee, assessments, nor have a vote. (amended 6-19-05)

c. Life Membership. A life member is an honorary member and is entitled to none of the privileges or obligations of regular membership. The life member shall remain on the club mailing list, shall be welcome as a guest at all club functions and is entitled to moorage in accordance with Article VII. (amended 6-19-05)

Section 3. APPLICATION FOR REGULAR MEMBERSHIP. Application for membership shall be made on the approved form and accompanied by a deposit as shown in Article IX. The prospective member shall attend a Board meeting for introduction, prior to approval. The applicant shall agree to abide by the bylaws and Standing Rules of the club. The application shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and shall be acted upon at the next scheduled board meeting. If the application is approved, the applicant shall then become a regular member of the club upon payment of the remaining dues, fees, and assessments per Article IX. (amended 11-11-01)

Section 4. APPLICATION FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP. A regular member that is active and in good standing for the preceding five (5) years and will endorse his stock to the club may apply in writing to the Board for associate membership. Changes from regular membership to associate membership will become effective January 1 of the following year upon approval by the Board. Dues will be as stated in Article IX.

Section 5. APPLICATION FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP. A regular member or associate member that is active and in good standing for the preceding ten (10) years, who has reached the age of 65, and will endorse his stock to the club, may apply in writing to the Board for life membership. Changes from regular membership or associate membership to life membership will become effective January 1 of the following year upon approval by the Board.

Section 7. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP - INVOLUNTARY. Membership in the club may be terminated for the following reasons:

a. Non-Payment of Financial Responsibilities. Membership may be terminated, by action of the Board of Directors, if any of the annual dues, fees, assessments or other moneys including payment delinquent fees, are not paid in full by February 28 of each year. A notice of termination, stating the sum owed, the effective date of termination and allowing 30 days after the termination date for removal of their property, shall be sent, via registered mail, to the terminated member at the address on record with the WWYC. Termination of membership shall not discharge the outstanding obligation. (amended 6-19-05)

b. Conduct. Membership may be terminated, by action of the Board of Directors, for conduct likely to endanger the reputation, welfare or good order of the club or for failure to comply with the bylaws and standing rules. A notice of termination, stating the effective date of termination and allowing 30 days after the termination date for removal of their property, shall be sent, via registered mail, to the terminated member at the address on record with the WWYC. (amended 6-19-05)

c. Disposition of Terminated Member property. (added 6-19-05)

1. Vessels: Vessels remaining on WWYC premises after the property removal date shall be subject to the provisions of Revised Code of Washington, Chapter 88.26. (added 6-19-05)

2. Boat Houses: In the event a terminated members boat house remains on the WWYC premises after the property removal date, The Walla Walla Yacht Club shall have a possessory chattel lien on the boat house for the cost of disposing or removing the boat house and may dispose of, or foreclose on, pursuant to any applicable laws of the State of Washington. (added 6-19-05)

Section 8. REINSTATEMENT OF MEMBERSHIP.

a. Associate Membership. Associate members can be reinstated to regular membership by application on the approved form and accompanied by payment for stock purchase, and all annual membership dues, fees, and assessments in accordance with Article IX. An associate member will not be required to pay an initiation fee or reinstatement fee. Should there be a waiting list for regular membership, the associate member will have preference over new member applicants.

b. Life Membership. Life members may be reinstated to regular membership by application on the approved form and accompanied by payment for stock purchase, and all annual membership dues, fees, and assessments in accordance with Article IX. A life member will not be required to pay an initiation fee or reinstatement fee. Should there be a waiting list for regular membership, the life member will have preference over new member's applicants.

c. Former Memberships. Former members who have resigned in good standing may become eligible for reinstatement of regular membership upon acceptance of their application on the approved form and accompanied by payment for stock purchase, annual membership dues, fees, and assessments in accordance with Article IX. He will not be required to pay an initiation fee but shall make payment of a reinstatement fee in accordance with Article IX. Should there be a waiting list for regular membership, the former member will have preference over new member applicants.

ARTICLE V
ANNUAL OPERATING BUDGET AND CAPITAL EXPENDITURES (amended 03-28-10)

Section 1. ANNUAL OPERATING BUDGET

- a. Budget Committee. The Budget Committee shall consist of the Commodore, Vice Commodore, Treasurer, and Secretary. The Treasurer shall serve as the Chairman of the Budget Committee.
- b. Annual Operating Budget. The Budget Committee shall present a preliminary operating budget to the Board of Directors at the February meeting of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall develop a recommended operating budget to present to the general membership at the March meeting. (amended 11-9-97)
- c. Approval. The annual operating budget shall be presented to the membership for approval at the March General Membership meeting. (amended 11-9-97)

Section 2: CAPITAL EXPENDITURES

- a. Capital Expenses Committee. The Capital Expenses Committee shall be chaired by the Vice Commodore who is also tasked as Chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee. The members of the Capital Expenses Committee will be the members of the Long Range Planning Committee. Reference Article V, Section 4. (needs to agree with existing bylaws)
- b. Capital Expenditures. Capital expenditures are not a part of normal operating expenses. Capital expenditures include special projects and acquisitions with a life of one year or more. They shall be accounted for separately on the balance sheet. Capital expenditures and acquisitions less than $2,000 will be considered as part of the annual operating budget.
- c. Capital Expenditures Budget Submittal: The Capital Expenses Committee shall present a preliminary budget to the Board of Directors by the February board meeting. This report will be integrated into the budget overview.
- d. Approval. The Annual Capital Expenses budget shall be presented to the membership for approval at the March General Membership Meeting. Additional capital expenses shall be approved, as needed, by the membership at general membership meetings or at special membership meetings, if required.

Section 3. EXCESS OBLIGATION. The officers and/or the Board of Directors and/or any paid employee of the club or any member shall not obligate the club in excess of the approved total annual operating budget without ratification in accordance with Article VI, Section 4.

Section 4. EMERGENCY SPENDING. If the Board determines that there is not enough money available in the operating budget to meet an emergency expense, then the board will declare an emergency which allows the board to authorize spending from other club resources.

Section 5: ASSESSMENTS. Non-budgeted costs to the club may be financed through assessments.

- a. Proposal: Assessments may be proposed by the Board or may be proposed by the membership at a general membership meeting through an approved motion.
- b. Notification: All proposed assessments shall be presented in writing to the membership in accordance with Article VI, Section 3.
- c. Action: Action on the proposed assessments shall be taken at the next regularly scheduled membership meeting or at a special meeting held prior thereto.

ARTICLE VI

MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Section 1. GENERAL AND ANNUAL MEETINGS. General membership meetings shall be held in March, June, September, and November. The November meeting shall be considered the annual meeting for the election of officers. The meetings shall be held at a time and place designated by the Commodore. (amended 11-9-97)

Section 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of members of the club may be called by the Commodore or by any ten (10) members.

Section 3. NOTICE OF MEETING. Any meeting of the membership shall require written notice mailed to each membership. Notice shall be made at least ten (10) days previous to the date for the meeting. Such notice shall state the place, day, hour, and purpose of the meeting. Mailing of the notice to the last address known by the Secretary/Treasurer shall constitute compliance with this requirement.

Section 4. RATIFICATION.

a. Quorum. Fifteen percent (15%) of the stockholders shall constitute a quorum.

b. Vote. Any action, other than amendment to these bylaws or removal of a board member or officer, shall require a simple majority of those members present at any meeting in which a quorum is present.

ARTICLE VII

MOORAGE

Section 1. REGULAR MEMBERSHIP MOORAGE.

- a. Each regular membership is obligated to pay for moorage for at least one assigned open moorage space or one boathouse moorage space per membership. (amended 4-21-96) (amended 6-10-01)
- b. No member shall sublet or allow usage of his moorage or any portion thereof except to another regular member in good standing.
- c. Moorage is not transferable with the sale of a boat or boathouse.
- d. In case of split ownership of a boat or boathouse, all persons having an ownership interest must have regular membership in the club; otherwise moorage facilities will not be available.
- e. A moorage priority list will be maintained and administered by the Vice Commodore under Article II, Section 9 for regular members who wish to move to a different moorage.
- f. The Board of Directors reserves the right to rearrange moorage. Any conflict should be resolved among the member(s) and/or be in the best interest of the club.
- h. All open moorage electricity used between November 1st and the following March 31st shall be metered and billed to the using member at the Standing Fee Schedule rate. Club owned meters will be installed upon request. (added 3-20-05)

Section 2. ADDITIONAL MOORAGE. Additional moorage per each regular membership may be made available upon request in writing to the board as follows:

- a. Requests from regular memberships wishing to moor an additional boat may be granted if there is available open moorage for the appropriate size boat and there is no waiting list for a new or returning membership which could use that open moorage space. (amended 6-10-01)
- b. Payment for additional moorage will be in accordance with Article IX, Section 9. Payment shall be due in full upon approval by the Board and will not be prorated. The approved fee schedule for additional open moorage shall be effective as of January 1, 2002. (added 6-10-01)
- c. Use of that open moorage space may be revoked if needed by the club for a new or returning membership. If revoked, moorage fees paid for that year will be refunded. However, if the membership currently using that slip should choose to continue to occupy that slip, the member shall pay the full rate for the moorage, including the annual repair and maintenance fee, with credit given for money already received for that year. (added 6-10-01)
- d. Revocation shall be based on the size of the boat, space needed, and the membership seniority of the moored boats, with those moored the longest having the highest seniority. The exception to this rule is those boats moored as additional moorage as of April 1, 2001, will not be asked to vacate their moorage for the purpose of making space for a new or returning membership as long as the boat or ownership does not change. (added 6-10-01)

Section 3. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP MOORAGE. An associate member is entitled to 10 days moorage per year, as available.

Section 4. LIFE MEMBERSHIP MOORAGE. A life member is entitled to moorage, as available, not to exceed 2 consecutive weeks not more often than 2 times per year.

Section 5. NON-MEMBER MOORAGE.

a. Courtesy Moorage. Courtesy moorage may be provided under the following circumstances:

1. Visitors from other yacht clubs with reciprocal privileges. Courtesy moorage shall not exceed 2 consecutive weeks not more often than 2 times per year.
2. Visitors in transit may be provided no more than 2 consecutive night's moorage without charge.

b. Guest Moorage. Guests accompanied by members may use moorage facilities for a limit of 5 consecutive days and not more often than 2 times per year without charge.

c. Temporary Moorage. Temporary moorage is any moorage extending beyond the courtesy or guest moorage limits on a fee basis. Moorage shall be assessed at a fixed rate per night according to Article IX. Temporary moorage shall not be extended beyond 10 days of the above stated time limits. Any moorage for other club activities or commercial interests shall be arranged with the Board.
